V. Kaleidoscope — Educational Programme

Kaleidoscope 2018 — Young Reporters for the Environment · The Man Who Planted Trees
Parisian schools Davout and Bignon were invited for a 50-minute screening of short films on nature and sustainable development actions. The screenings were followed by a meeting with participants from the programme Jeunes Reporters pour l'Environnement (TERAGIR association). Films screened included: The Man Who Planted Trees (dir. Frédéric Back, Canadian Broadcasting Corporation) — an adaptation of Jean Giono's story of shepherd Elzéard Bouffier who revives his region by planting trees — and a 16-minute animated film by Quebec NGO Vivre en Ville on urban sustainability challenges (GHGs, pollution, urban sprawl, eco-districts).

VI. Other Activities

Cannes Digital — Cocktail du Merveilleux 2018 (Final Edition) The final Cocktail du Merveilleux was held at the Cannes Film Festival, concluding the eight-year series (2011–2018). Digital Marketing Workshops and Mentoring Programme for Filmmakers continued. Movies Around the World: international screenings through Alliance Française network.
